Yea, though I walk through the valley of shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy staff and thy rod comforted me. Psalm 23:

Vox audita perit, littera scripta manet: The heard voice perishes, the written letter remains.

September 11, 2001: Twenty Years Ago

Most of us who have been fortunate enough to be exactly where we were about 9:00 the morning of September 11, 2001, will remember the program I had on the radio. A huge explosion at the World Trade Center in New York City was an inferno.

In those early minutes, news was speculation. It was first reported as a plane crashing at my service destination, all work in the office was all but forgotten, and the office staff was in a state of confusion. A second jumbo jet had crashed, igniting a conflagration rivaling the first. The sky was frighteningly clear, the plane was mistaken for an accident, and the homeland was under attack since December 7, 1941.

When the third 757 struck the World Trade Center, the scope of the attack was clearly greater than any we had ever experienced. Then the United Flight 93 crashed into a field near Shanksville, Pennsylvania, what else might be in the sky? All North American air traffic was ordered to land at the nearest airport. The flight was redirected to the nearest airport, not the original destination. The hijackers secretly hoppedscotched a security measure. Even today, the day of 9/11/2001, we remember the day.

SHAWN CARAFA, PASTOR

When asked by a Pharisee, over what is the greatest commandment he continued into the Jesus said and proclaimed.

Jesus said, "The greatest commandment is to love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind, and strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself." Theologians have term to describe this phenomenon, poetic effects of the word.

Matthew 22:36-40. The word 'love' derived from the Greek 'agape' means a selfless, unconditional love.

When we hear that answer the idea of what it means to our soul, but what about our Lord with our brains? Cooper says that to love with Him intellectually and some practical ways that reading and seeking is through what we habitually think about.

Philippians 4:8 in which Paul says, "Whatever is true, noble, just, lovely, pure, lovely, of good repute, if there is anything virtuous, worthy of praise, if there is anything just and honest."

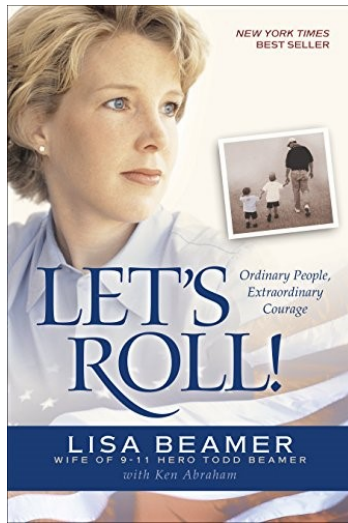

The list that Paul provides rule over our thoughts just as we know, if we are totally far more concerned with endeavors than our inner case because of the influence of our minds.

The Bible affects the including our minds. The human author that God speaks truth. In Romans 1:20, Paul says, "The invisible attributes of God are clearly seen, being understood by the things that have been made, His eternal power and divine nature, ever since the creation of the world."

And, in Ephesians 3:14, Paul says, "I am writing to you this letter as I remember you in prayer, and I want you to know how much I love you and how much I desire to see you face to face."

And, in 2 Corinthians 3:14, Paul says, "The veil is removed from our hearts, and we have the glory of the Lord's face shining on us."

True Heroes

UNCLE GEORGE'S (IN)FAMOUS DEVILED EGGS

Labor Day is hailed as the end of summer. Of course if you check the weather forecasts across

Indiana, you are likely to find the end of summer somewhat premature. Perhaps because Labor Day marked the end of summer vacation. I was a kid (back in school began in September) anymore since most schools for a month. Labor Day is, however, summer, and is therefore celebrated with picnics, cookouts, camping trips, boat variety of other outdoor activities.

While not by any means a popular place to find as many varieties as there are one to the collection in fact, just a variation grandmother used interesting zing and texture. Omens: The Eve of Destruction

P. F. Sloan wrote the song in 1965. McGuire released it as a single in 1965. The song itself was controversial but it hit the #1 Spot on the US Billboard charts. The line of the chorus "You don't believe we're under the supervision of a dictator, as this is a free world" became a popular slogan. But if 1965 was the only grace of God that we eventually end with the event. This happened in Finland. But the handwriting was on the wall. Paavi Rasanen, a Finnish pastor, was a part of the Evangelical Alliance in 2019. He announced they would participate in a prayer service. Rasanen publicly questioned this decision. He opened to Romans 1:24. They exchanged the truth for a lie and worshiped and served the Creator...

Finland's next Who... Finnish authorities spent hours at a local police station. An investigation took place. The Prosecutor General has brought charges against Rasanen. He is facing a potential sentence for using the Bible as her guide. The court found therein.

The second notable change was the sermon video. The pastor was recorded on a phone. The LG approved. The A/V console used the new camera. The video included a YouTube channel. The third change is that the sermon audio recording website Sermon Archives now has a page containing recordings. That list will be updated. The page now includes a direct link to the church YouTube channel. The QR code image itself is just a few years old. The future and publishing the order.
